OFFICIAL VISITOR GUIDE SYDNEY AUSTRALIA

Positively

PENRITH

Welcome

There are so many reasons to visit Penrith, and when you do, we're positive you'll love it as much as we do.

This guide is your invitation to enjoy everything Penrith has to offer – unforgettable things to do, restful places to stay, great places to eat and drink and spectacular things to see!

You'll be surprised by what's on offer, because there's more to Penrith than you might imagine, and the experiences here are anything but ordinary.

Think memorable attractions, a thriving dining and bar scene, a creative heart that beats strong with well-loved cultural institutions and diverse event venues, fun family activities and striking natural beauty all wrapped up with the positive spirit of our community.

From the banks of the Nepean River and rural hinterlands, through our city centres and many unique neighbourhoods, you'll discover well known favourites and hidden gems. And the best part? There's no set path to follow – just dive into this guide to create your own unique journey and leave the rest to us.

It's our nature to provide a warm welcome, so whether you're coming to Penrith for an event, for business, to visit family and friends or 'just because', we can't wait to see you.

Councillor Tricia Hitchen
Mayor of Penrith

Statement of Recognition of Penrith City's Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultural Heritage:

Penrith City Council acknowledges the unique status of Aboriginal people as the original owners and custodians of lands and waters, including the land and waters of Penrith City.

Council values the unique status of Torres Strait Islander people as the original owners and custodians of the Torres Strait Islands and surrounding waters.

We work together for a united Australia and City that respects this land of ours, that values the diversity of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultural heritage, and provides justice and equity for all.

Local produce adventure

You might be surprised to know that Penrith is home to a growing range of local producers, from craft brewers, to award winning smallgoods, artisanal chocolate, heart starting coffee and more.

We've put together a Penrith Producers trail so you can experience a host of local goodness!

Rusty Penny Brewing Co

Destination NSW

Zokoko

1

Dip your toe into Penrith's growing craft brewing scene at Rusty Penny Brewing Co, Casey's Brewery or Squinters Brewing Co – choose just one, or visit all three!

2

Make a trip to Montecatini Meats where decades of experience are distilled in a range of outstanding smallgoods made onsite in the heart of our City.

3

Life is sweet, especially when you visit Pasticceria Dolce Mia before heading to St Marys for an afternoon sugar lift from Indian and Fijian style sweets at Princess Nisha's.

4

If freshly roasted coffee sounds like your idea of heaven, include a visit to Underground Coffee Roasters where the aroma is as good as the taste.

5

Head over the river to Emu Plains to get a glimpse into the workings of Zokoko – a premium bean to bar chocolate maker and also home to the outstanding Morgans Coffee Roasters.

6

Like to know your Sunday morning eggs are good and fresh? Visit the Galeas at Llandilo Egg Farm, which has been family owned and operated since 1963.

Llandilo Egg Farm

Riverside adventure

The Nepean River flows through the heart of Penrith and is one of our most loved natural resources. There's so much to see and do along the banks of the river, it's a real must do for any trip to our City.

Set aside a day, take your time, and soak up the serenity.

Horizon Line Canoes

Nepean Belle Paddlewheeler

1

There are so many ways to explore the Nepean River. Get out on the water with Horizon Line Canoes, take the 6.4km Great River Walk, a loop that leads across the stunning Yandhai Nepean River Crossing or book a cruise on the Nepean Belle Paddlewheeler.

2

Make time for a coffee or meal at Emu Hall. This historic home on the western riverbank, has been lovingly restored and is now a popular and picturesque dining spot.

3

While you're on the western side of the river, visit the Penrith Regional Gallery – Home of the Lewers Bequest for a fix of art and culture and a break in the garden café.

4

On the east side, stop in at the Log Cabin for a drink and lunch or carry on to Tench Reserve where you'll find East Bank and its great restaurants and bars.

5

Make the Nepean Naval and Maritime Museum your next port of call and immerse yourself in a fascinating collection of historical items, displays and documents.

6

Weir Reserve is a beautiful, quiet spot to enjoy a picnic and views of the river. It's also home to the Japanese Garden which celebrate Penrith's friendship city agreements.

Adrenaline -fuelled adventure

If you're after an adrenaline-fuelled adventure or are chasing unique and unforgettable experiences, make Penrith your go-to. There's action packed fun to be had on the water and on dry land, not to mention the chance to encounter exotic beasts.

Step out of your comfort zone and be prepared to have fun.

Throw Axe

1

Tackle the rapids at Penrith Whitewater Stadium, soar 10-metres in the air over the lake at Jetpack Adventures or test your strength and balance at Cables Wake Park.

2

Experience the thrill of a lifetime at iFLY Indoor Skydiving where you get all the fun of the free fall with the safety of a state-of-the-art wind tunnel.

3

Go beyond your limits at TruNinja where you'll find an awesome obstacle course, complete with a testing warped wall, that will draw on all your speed, strength and balance.

4

Make a stop at Throw Axe to channel your inner lumberjack and enjoy the satisfying 'thunk' when your axe hits the wooden target. With a small or large group, this is lots of fun!

5

For an unforgettable experience, book a session at Zambi Wildlife Retreat where you can get up close and personal with exotic animals while supporting important conservation work.

6

If you're keen to put the pedal to the metal there's no better place than Luddenham Raceway to try go karting.

Zambi Wildlife Retreat

Accessible adventure

Penrith is home to a range of attractions that are committed to making their facilities and activities inclusive and as accessible as possible.

If you, or someone in your group, lives with disability, check out these great options and start planning your next trip to our City.

1

If you're after an adrenaline-fuelled adventure why not try iFLY Indoor Skydiving for a safe free-fall experience, or unleash your inner lumberjack at Throw Axe.

2

The Joan Sutherland Performing Arts Centre offers a range of accessible features allowing you to experience outstanding music, art, comedy and dance performances.

3

The Museum of Fire celebrates the history of firefighting in an accessible building, with accessible displays and toilets, both inside and out near the picnic grounds.

4

If you enjoy the clatter and challenge of knocking down pins, Zone Bowling is for you! This accessible venue offers discounted bowling to all people with disability and companion cards are accepted.

5

The Penrith Regional Gallery – Home of the Lewers Bequest offers an Inclusive Education Program of tours and workshops.

6

Have some fun at inclusive playgrounds in Jordan Springs (Livvi's Place), Thornton Oval and Jamison Park. Or go on the lookout for wildlife on the accessible pathways through Blue Hills Wetlands.

Foodie adventure

The dining scene in Penrith just keeps getting better and better. And, with well-established favourites and new restaurants and cafés popping up right across our City, there's plenty of options to choose from.

Whether you're ready for breakfast, a coffee break, lunch, dinner or a late-night drink, here's cheers to Penrith!

Mr Watkin's Bar

Percy Plunkett

Destination NSW

1

There's no better way to start the day than with breakfast at Cassandra's on the Park in St Marys. You'll find yummy smoothies, great coffee, fresh juices and all your favourite morning foods.

2

While you're in St Marys, skip on over to St Clair where you'll find FlorisTea, a gorgeous flower market and teahouse that specialises in simply divine high teas.

3

Named for a rather colourful former owner, Percy Plunkett is the perfect spot for brunch or lunch and offers a delicious all-day menu.

4

Enjoy pre-dinner drinks, and a glorious Penrith sunset over the Blue Mountains at Theo's Rooftop Bar. You'll be tempted (and welcome) to stay for dinner as you take in the stunning view.

5

The ever-popular Mr Watkin's Bar is named after a man who played an important role in the establishment of Penrith. Head in for a sensational lunch or dinner and drinks at any time.

6

After something a little bit different? Head to Duck Duck Goose, a dumpling and cocktail bar that hits the spot for dinner and is also there to meet your late-night cravings.

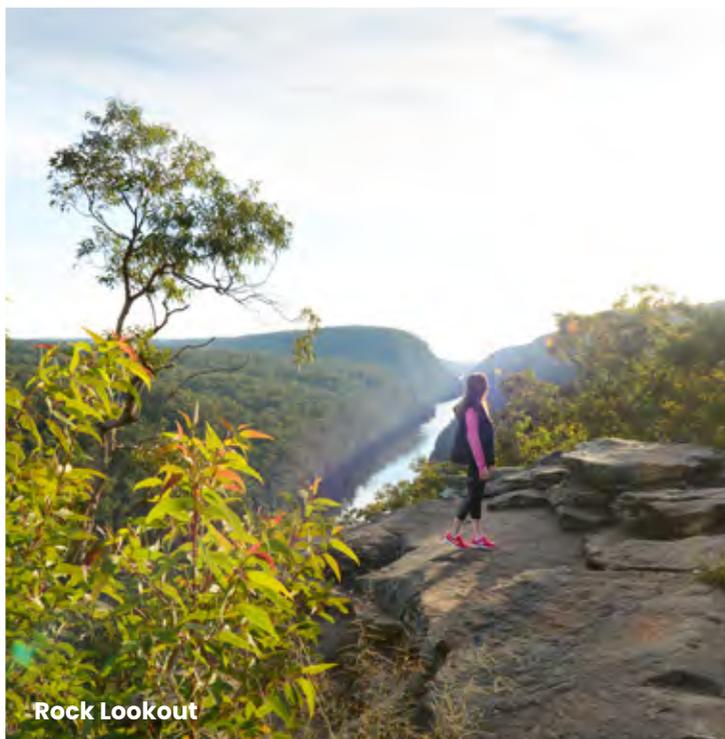

Cassandra's on the Park

Nature adventure

With its stunning rural hinterlands and bountiful open spaces, Penrith is a natural choice for travellers who enjoy active holidays.

Whether you like to run, walk or cycle (or mix it up with all three) you'll find plenty of trails, paths, parks and reserves to explore.

Great River Walk

1

No visit to Penrith is complete with a trip to the Rock Lookout. Worth it just for the drive out through historic Mulgoa, at the Rock you'll enjoy uninterrupted views of the stunning Nepean Gorge.

2

One of the best ways to experience the Nepean River is to get out on its waters. Horizon Line Canoes will fix you up with everything you need for a lazy day messing about with boats.

3

Mountainview Reserve is one of Penrith's hidden gems. Take a stroll along the Reserve's tracks to enjoy its bushlands and wildlife and get your camera ready to make the most of the bird hide!

4

Download the free Penrith Hike, Bike and Fitness Trail map at Penrith.city/hike-and-bike-trail to discover 26 active options. There's also three great Park Run locations to try.

5

Head out to Sydney International Regatta Centre where you'll find 5kms of cycling and walking paths, lakeside picnic grounds, big skies and mountain views.

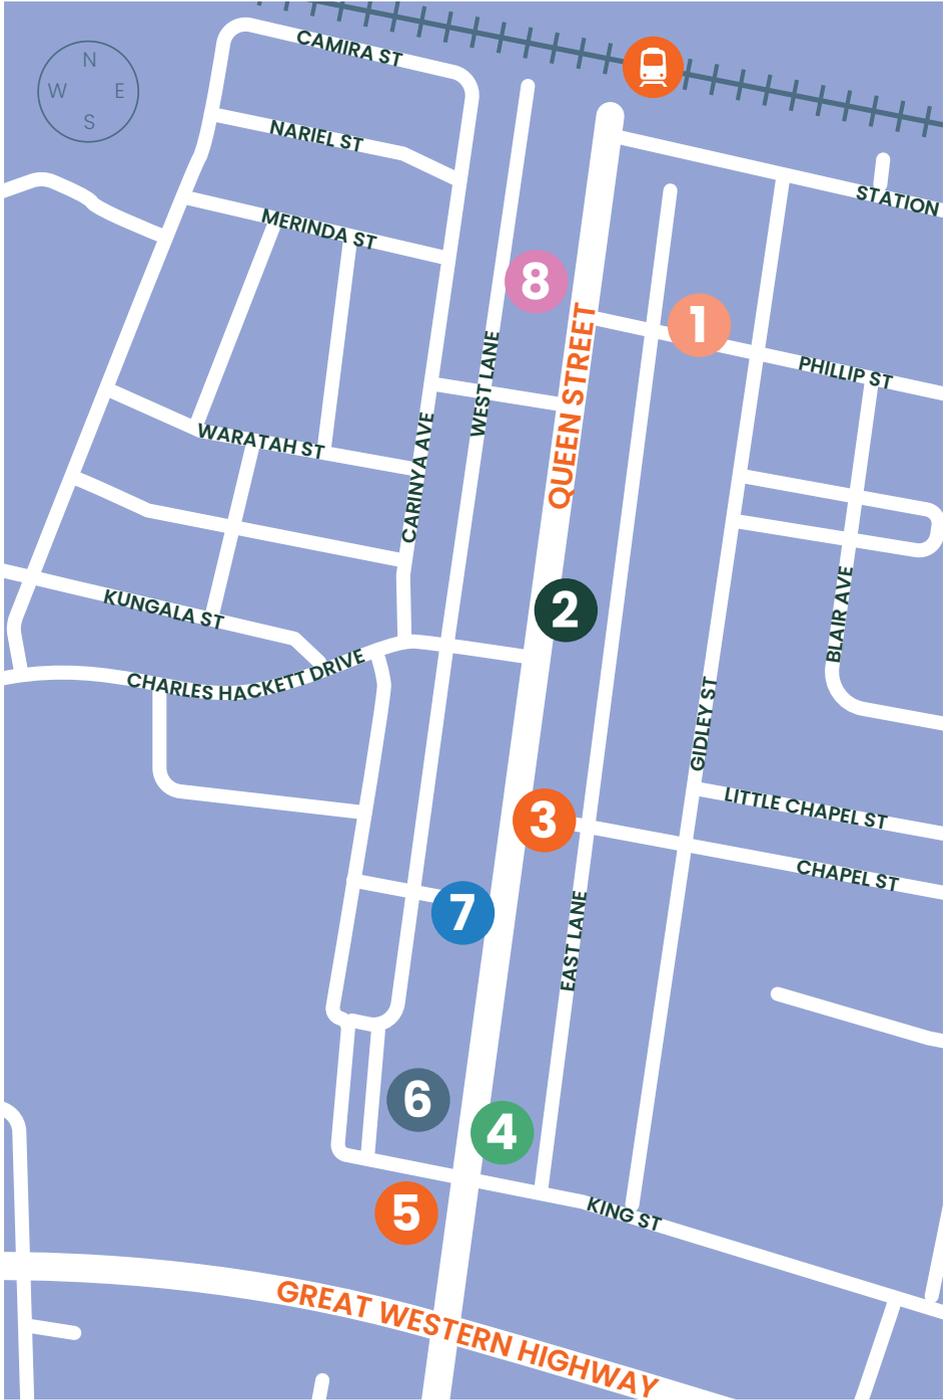

6

The Great River Walk is a stunning 6.4km riverside loop that can be walked or cycled. You can also try the Penrith Heritage Walk, an 11km ramble through our City's past.

St Marys Street Art Trail

St Marys is a colourful and diverse part of Penrith with its own distinct character and charm. There are plenty of reasons to visit this thriving neighbourhood and, while you're there, taking the St Marys Street Art Trail is a must.

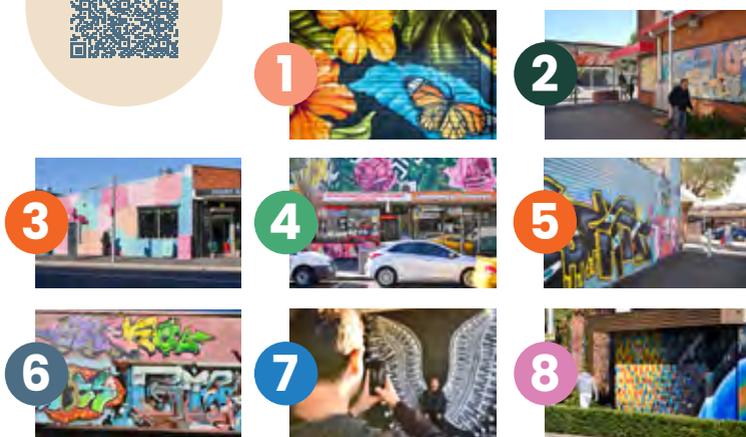

On the trail you can snap a heavenly pic of yourself in front of the Angel Wings mural, immerse yourself in edgy street art or gaze at walls adorned with gorgeous painted blooms.

The trail map leads you to eight fabulous murals in and around St Marys. You can also check out the stunning "We got this" street art on Charles Hackett Drive along the side of St Marys Ripples. Created in the wake of the pandemic, the mural celebrates the strength and resilience of our communities.

The Blind
Chef Café

S. BOYD
K. GEDES

The Blind Chef Café

The Blind Chef Café is a firm favourite of locals and visitors to Penrith. This gem of a café is the realisation of owner and talented chef Craig Shanahan's long-held dream.

Craig, who lost his sight at 23, has a passion for flavour and creating sensational dishes. He also has first-hand experience of how hard it can be for people with vision impairment or other disabilities to navigate cafés and restaurants.

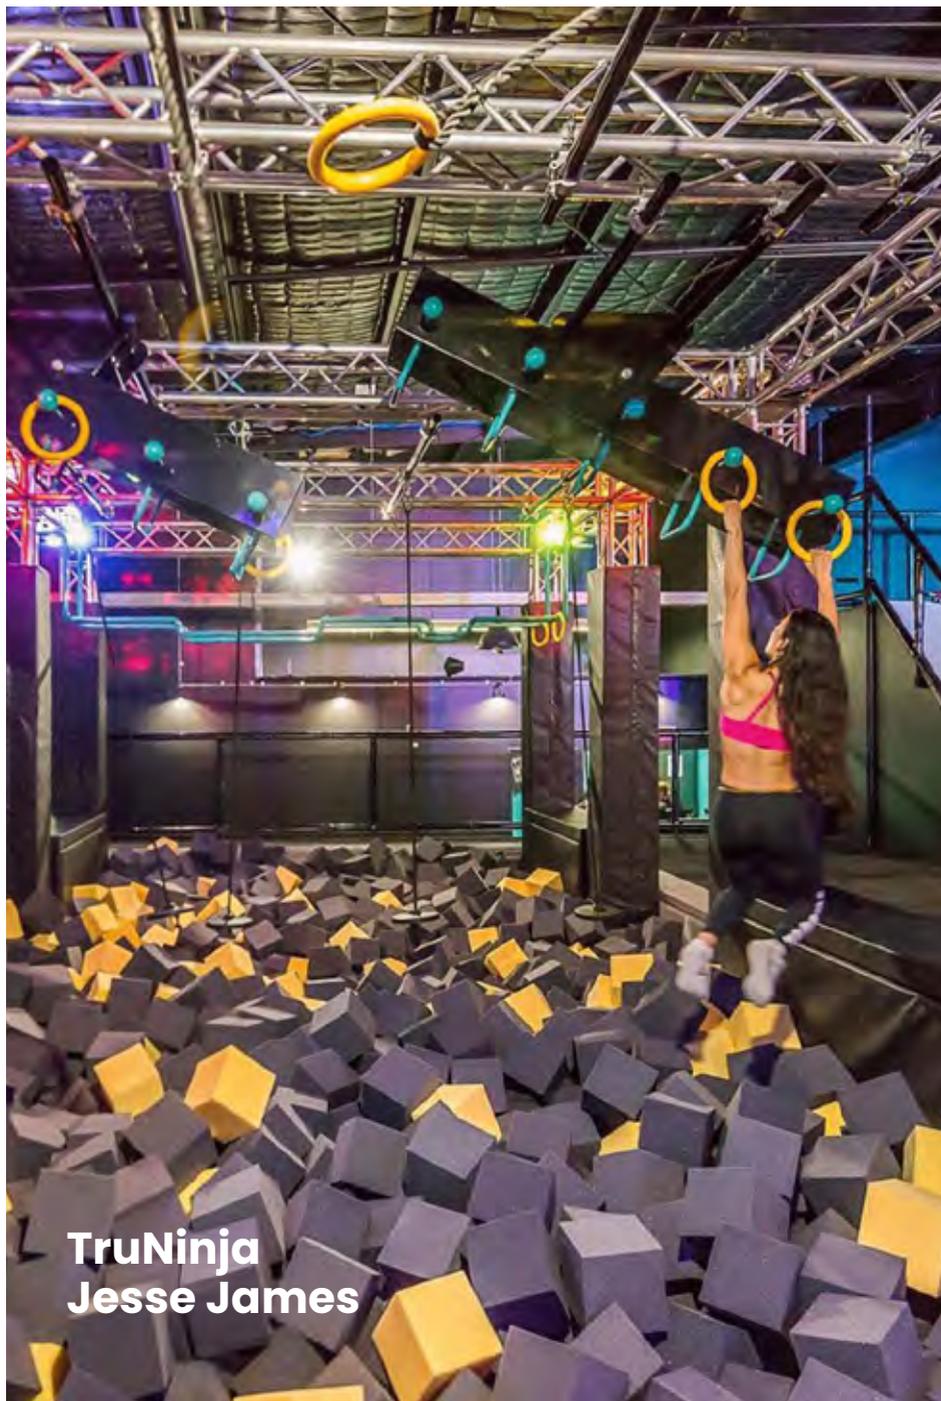

The Blind Chef's stylish layout makes it easier for people with vision impairment to move around and provides plenty of space for people in wheelchairs to manoeuvre.

Serving breakfast and lunch with gluten free, vegan and vegetarian options on offer, you'll find welcoming staff, fantastic food and a super friendly atmosphere.

TruNinja
Jesse James

TruNinja

Jesse James

When you visit Penrith, you'll find we have more than our fair share of adventure attractions – from iFLY Indoor Skydiving and Cables Wakeboarding to the Whitewater Stadium, GoKarting and so much more.

One of our most popular adventure activities is TruNinja, where you can test your speed, strength and balance on a range of obstacles. Best of all, it caters from toddlers all the way up to fully grown fitness fanatics.

Scan me

TruNinja General Manager Jesse James embodies the spirit of the business and the adventurous heart of Penrith. While her background is in personal training, Jesse is also a Women in Adventure Sports' sky diving ambassador. With 500 plus jumps under her belt, she is well qualified to inspire more girls and women to get involved in the sport and to encourage locals and visitors to overcome all kinds of obstacles while having a blast on the TruNinja course.

Getting Here

From Sydney

From the M4 Motorway take either the Northern Road exit or the Mulgoa Road exit to get to Penrith; the Mamre Road exit to get to St Marys; or the Russell Street exit to get to Emu Plains.

From the South

From the South Western Freeway/Hume Highway take the Penrith exit, follow the signs along Northern Road to Penrith, or continue past the Northern Road exit and take the M7 Tollway (e-Toll only*) to the M4 Motorway.

From the North

From the Sydney Newcastle Freeway or Pacific Highway follow Pennant Hills Road and the Cumberland Highway, then take the M2 Motorway which converts to the M7 Tollway (e-Toll only*), then turn onto M4 Motorway.

From the West

From the M4 Motorway/ Great Western Highway, take the Northern Road or Mulgoa Road exit for Penrith; the Mamre Road exit for St Marys; or the Russell Street exit for Emu Plains.

* If you do not have an electronic tag then it's best to purchase an Emu Pass designed for visitors and casual users of Sydney toll roads. Phone 13 18 65 or visit emupass.com.au

By Public Transport

Penrith is on the Western and Blue Mountains line of the Sydney Trains network. Our local railway stations are St Marys, Werrington, Kingswood, Penrith and Emu Plains.

Trains to the Blue Mountains via Penrith and Emu Plains depart from Central. Suburban trains depart regularly from Central and City stations. Daily NSW TrainLink services to and from Central NSW also stop at Penrith. If you are travelling to the airport, change at Central for the airport link trains.
